For the advertiser:

Research shows that people do retain delivered vouchers and that direct mail such as just for you succeeds because all of us love a 'special offer' and as advertising in just for you only costs around 0.2 pence per voucher it makes it an extremely cost effective marketing tool.

As a local business you can promote your company and secure new clients, or just retain existing, hard earned customers. just for you delivers to thousands of homes providing the local business community with essential advertising directly to potential customers.

just for you is a dedicated advertising product with a limited number of vouchers inside each book. Make sure your business is included – can you really afford not to?

just for you is provided free to voucher users and use of it does not create any legal relations or agreement between the voucher user and just for you. The inclusion of any advertiser in this publication does not imply a recommendation and just for you cannot be held responsible for the information disclosed by advertisements, all of which are accepted in good faith. Every effort is made to ensure the accuracy of information in this booklet, but no liability can be accepted for loss or inconvenience caused as a result of error or omission. All contents are copyright to just for you and none of the advertisements contained in this booklet are to be reproduced in any way without first obtaining written consent from just for you. Information contained in the just for you booklet and website in relation to retailers listed has not been independently verified by just for you. Neither just for you nor any of its employees give any representation or warranty as to the accuracy, completeness and/or reliability of any content of the just for you booklet or website, or as to any information contained (whether of a retailer, an advertiser or otherwise) which is accessed via just for you or as to the fitness of just for you for any particular purpose. In no circumstances shall just for you or any of its employees be liable for any loss or damage suffered as a result of any use of just for you or information contained or shown in the booklet or on the website. Users/visitors please note that just for you is not an online store and that just for you does not sell any products apart from advertising space. All just for you does is simply link you to the advertisers.

just for you is run by Business Visions Limited. Company No: 6510171.
